|---------------|--|---------------|
| pages 118-147 | Land use issues from old chapter 5 integrated into new chapter for Regional Plan of Action | pages 128-158 |
|---------------|--|---------------|

This section of the Plan is to be a tool for looking at an integrated approach for setting and meeting goals for various land use issues. Put in other words, a place to identify opportunities where regulators, researchers, government, industry, and communities can work together on resource management. Knowing that actions to implement the Plan and address land use issues often require cooperation within the larger resource management system, the Planning Board feels it is suitable to frame this discussion in a regional plan of action. It will be consistent with the Environmental Stewardship Framework that is described by INAC.

Updated land use issue discussions

Added land use issue 12 - Global Connections

page 152

The Board is still developing the structure of the Regional Plan of Action so there are many more action items to be entered into the tables. The Board would like some stakeholder feedback on the proposed RPA before adding the larger list of actions into a draft for signatories to review.
